What?

“A common Language in School” informs you about the availability of an EASY READING version of the ICF. Under https://www.icf-school.eu/images/outputs/o2/icf_brochure_en.pdf you will find an English version of the ICF designed to cooperate with parents. The goal of this version is that parents can fully participate in intervention processes.

Original item:

B134 Sleep functions

General mental functions of periodic, reversible and selective physical and mental disengagement from one's immediate environment accompanied by characteristic physiological changes.

EASY READING

b134

Sleeping

My child can switch off while sleeping. After sleeping, he/she wakes up again. My child has a regular sleep/wake cycle. His/her eyes are closed when he/she sleeps. It is also possible that my child is dreaming.

How can you participate in the project?

Your school, your students and parents, school-psychologists and administrative staff can participate in our project in order to pilot our products. Please contact:
